Dear colleagues,

As promised yesterday, here the final version from the AGG-announcement, which you can use tomorrow (translated) for the publication at your website.

On February 21st I did send you the draft communication plan as a framework for further communication by AGG, is it possible to have your reactions on this proposal next Monday (March 18) in the evening at the latest, so we can make a final version?

Kind regards,

5.1.2.e Woo,

Dear all,

We agree with 5.1.2.e Woo and 5.1.2.e Woo that pro-active communication indeed means that we should communicate as soon as possible after the draft Regulation has been distributed.

So we all should be prepared for tomorrow or Friday.

5.1.2.e Woo mentioned "tentatively tomorrow".

May I kindly request to publish the updated information on the COM website not sooner than at the end of the day tomorrow? Or of course Friday would also be fine. This because of a debate tomorrow afternoon in the Dutch Parliament with regard to agricultural issues.

We also agree with 5.1.2.e Woo that we all should publish the relevant information on our websites at the same time.

I propose that 5.1.2.e Woo informs us when (tomorrow or Friday) and at what time the updated information will be published on the COM website.

Subsequently, let's say 2 hours later, the 4 Member States publish the text circulated earlier this week (and amended by 5.1.2.e Woo today; we can agree with the amendments) on their websites.

5.1.2.e Woo can provide a clean version tomorrow morning.

Kind regards,

5.1.2.e Woo

Dear 5.1.2.e Woo and 5.1.2.e Woo,

Regarding the timing, we assume that we should communicate already tomorrow, as soon as possible after the draft regulation has been distributed to SCoPAFF. By doing so we will be able to be ahead in our communication.

5.1.2.e Woo: Would it be possible to send a notification by e-mail as soon as your website is updated with the new information?

We don't see a need to add a specific tab with "AGG activities" at this point. We agree with 5.1.2.e Woo that such a tab might be added later.

We agree with 5.1.2.e Woo that that it is preferable to delete the word "extensive" in the Q&A text.

Regarding the news text circulated earlier this week we suggest a few small amendments (see attached file). We are prepared to publish that text on our website tomorrow.

Dear 5.1.2.e Woo and 5.1.2.e Woo,

Both your editorial proposals will be taken on board.

However, I'm a bit confused by 5.1.2.e Woo suggestion that there should be immediately a link to an 'AGG page'.

We can of course create a tab 'AGG activities' when there are activities to announce e.g. pre-submission meetings etc. But that should be made when there is something to announce.

In terms of content, I think what you had in the message circulated on Monday, is actually all in our proposed Q&A's - or do you see something missing?

5.1.2.a Woo

We have not planned a press release for tomorrow, but rather for the date when the vote takes place.

Regards,

5.1.2.e Woo

Subject: RE: Public announcement AGG

Dear 5.1.2.e Woo,

Thank you for this proposal, in general we agree with it. Concerning the Glyphosate-webtext, we have only one, small remark: Answering “Why a group of RMS and not a single RMS?” you write "Following extensive discussions... “ We prefer to delete 'extensive' to make this sentence and message more neutral.

As you state, this is an appropriate update from https://ec.europa.eu/food/plant/pesticides/glyphosate\_en. We suggest that as a sub-site from this page, there comes a link to an AGG-page and think it would be good to publish there (and/or at a news site from the EC) the short press announcement 5.1.2.e Woo, 5.1.2.e Woo and I wrote last monday. The advantage will be that other (AGG-) Member States, NGO's and press can copy this short news item one to one to their own publications and websites without further (mis)interpretation.

Finally we have the question when you plan to publish all this information, before or after SCoPAFF? I'm asking this because our Minister informed the parliament about the SCoPAFF topics, but didn't mention yet the proposed AGG. So for us it would be good to publish directly after SCoPAFF – for example Friday 22nd - so our Minister can inform the parliament at the same time.

Kind regards,

5.1.2.e Woo,
Ctgb

Dear all,

As announced yesterday, please find enclosed in Word Format an update for our website on glyphosate (available here: https://ec.europa.eu/food/plant/pesticides/glyphosate\_en )

All elements from yesterday's text have been integrated. Please let me know by tomorrow whether you have any suggestions/comments.

5.2.1 Woo

Other information: the interservices consultation on the draft Regulation is almost completed. As expected, the legal Service had quite some suggestions which we are now working on.
So far all is on schedule for sending the draft Regulation to PAFF on Thursday.

Dear all,

Thanks for the proposal. Enclosed please find our reactions.

We are also in the process of preparing a first update of our website – and will integrate the content of your proposal there (in fact, we had similar ideas – maybe breaking the topics down in several Q&As)

I hope to get a draft to you by tomorrow end of business.
